PERSONAL MENTION

Arlington Pennick, of Adams, is in Pendleton today.

Joseph Thompson, of Walla Walla, is visiting in Pendleton.

Mrs. Joel Halstead of Echo, is in the city for a few days' visit.

Charles Cameron, is ill with a threatened attack of appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rogers, of Echo, are in Pendleton this morning.

Attorney J. P. Winter returned last night from a business trip to Walla Walla.

Sherman Burroughs, a prominent pioneer of Salem, died Friday of typhoid fever.

J. H. Lawrey, who has been critically ill with typhoid fever for over a month, is now convalescent.

John P. McManus, the popular and aggressive editor of the Pilot Rock Record, is in the city today transacting business.

T. J. Nixdorff, formerly Western Union manager in this city, is now employed as night operator at the O. R. & N. offices here.

G. H. Grier, of Pendleton, who has been in our city on a short business visit, returned to Pendleton last evening.—La Grande Observer.

T. K. Beard of Modesto, Cal., owner of the Bickers hotel property, who has been in Pendleton for several days on business, departed for home this morning.

John E. Lathrop and wife left this morning for Portland, after gathering data for a special Pendleton edition of the Oregon Daily Journal, which is to appear soon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Davidson, of Umatilla, are visiting in Pendleton today. Mr. Davidson has resided at Umatilla for many years, and is well known in Pendleton.

J. W. Stamper, of Birch Creek, is in the city today, on a trading trip. He reports the grain in that portion of the county to be growing nicely. Rain would help it, but it is not absolutely necessary.

B. P. McElroy, the well known reservation farmer, was a business visitor today. Reservation wheat is in excellent condition and there is no prospect at this time of any of it having to be reseeded.

W. W. Wolf, one of the prominent farmers of the Echo district, is a business visitor today. Mr. Wolf raised a large crop of broomcorn and sorghum cane this season, and finds that they both pay in the Echo country. He will seed more land to both crops next year.

Mrs. A. C. Nixdorff, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, is convalescent. Her son, Glen, who contracted typhoid at La Crosse, Wash., has entirely recovered and will report for duty in the telegraph service of the O. R. & N. in a few days.

J. D. Casey, mayor of Hilgard, was a business visitor today. He has partially completed arrangements to start a lumber yard at Adams. He is operating two of the largest sawmills in the Blue mountains aside from the Perry mills. He owns a large tract to timber land near Meacham, which will be sawed next year, if his plans are carried out.

Just received by express a big line of men's fancy silk handkerchiefs, your choice for 50 cents at the Peoples Warehouse. Come and look at them. And for this Saturday evening there will be music from 7 until 9.

For this good old Saturday night the Peoples Warehouse will sell children's Iron Clad Hose, heavy or light weight, regular 25 cent value, for 19 cents. And there will be music as usual.

Bob Womach, the man who discovered gold at Cripple Creek, a camp which has produced $160,000,000 in gold, is paralyzed, helpless and dying in poverty at Colorado Springs.

$5.00 and $6.00 sweaters will be sold for $2.50 for this good old Saturday night at the Peoples Warehouse. And don't forget the music from 7 until 9.
